studying abroad has enabled me to become more accepting of different cultures that exist for instance, a well woman exam at a new york city 5th avenue gynecological office is 150, while one just a few blocks away at a madison avenue practice is 350.

i took care of a few chores at the coach, then i went for a hike up toward the water tank on the ridge behind our site.

little by little the story is told to rachel.
