e- and z-guggulsterones are the compounds that are responsible for lowering cholesterol and triglyceride levels in the blood.