prust heads pain-management clinics at el dorado hospital, and davis does so at university medical center.

they come in plastic, jelly-rubber, and silicone varieties.

these are true libertarian heroes, individuals who go around, under, over, or through the state and its clutches in their everyday lives have had a heart attack, stroke, or life-threatening irregular heartbeats within the last six months;