early symptoms are similar to a cold (runny nose, sneezing, mild cough, slight fever) but they develop into regular coughing spells with a "whooping" sound when the person inhales.

some sites hawk phony drugs that contain either trace amounts or no active ingredients.

the store will be located in the bradford shopping center at the corner of high house road and davis drive, the company said.

columnists are asked to write about topics of interest to the fancy in general as well as those of specific interest to judges and devotees of the breed.