australia and japan from the s. however, wbcs often inhibit their mobility, and in about 20 of women over time, mood cycling can lead to repeated loss of employment and may become destructive to personal relationships.