what is necessary in that circumstance is to flush the wax out using a device which squirts a stream of water into your ear canal and simultaneously vacuums the water out