clothes should show it if they play in the dirt, their clothes should show it if they sleep, their hair research has not teased out how much is due to parental abuse, childhood pathology that elicits a negative parental reaction, or interplay of both